

Rocky Farms

Ikaika Rogerson

La'au Caretaker

Waimanalo, O'ahu

MISSION

Making the dream of “la’au in every home”, a reality.

WHY WE FARM

- To provide La’au for the community.
- I enjoy it.

OUR FARM FUTURE

- More value added La’au products.
- Continue to care take the La’au Garden at Waimanalo Research station for Classes held there.

WHY GOFARM HAWAII

- To learn different methods that could be applied to current farm knowledge and experience in aquaponics.
- Take the leap and see what GoFarm Hawaii was all about.
- Learn how to combat different pests

WHAT WE GROW & OFFER

- Native and Non Native Medicinal Plants
- Medicinal Teas

WORD TO THE WISE

My hope is that Ag lives on in Hawaii. Especially since we are so far disconnected from the continent. If Hawaii could be self reliant that would be my hope.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND US

- Visit www.gofarmhawaii.org to view Ikaika’s Full Video Interview
- Waimanalo Research Station
- Waimanalo Co-op
- Rocky Farms on Facebook

GOFARM
HAWAII
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII’I
ALUMNI

GFH Site: Windward GFH Level: AgIncubator Cohort: 2 Status: Part time Farmer Acreage: 1200 square feet at WRS Hale