

Criteria to participate in HI FarmTrails

Agricultural Operations

- ❖ A farm, ranch, or nursery that is:
 - ❑ Actively cultivating plants, crops or livestock including chickens & bees
 - ❑ AND shares farm activities with the public including the following:
 - Tours
 - Workshops/classes
 - Museum
 - Visitor's Center
 - On-farm shop, cafe or farm stand
 - Retreat
 - Volunteer Opportunities

- ❖ Botanica/Historical Garden or Society whose purpose is to engage and educate the public. Can include on:
 - Botany
 - Cultural practices around crops and cultivation
 - Agricultural practice and history

Events

- ❑ Must be agricultural related. Examples are:
 - Festivals on foods and plants that feature crops and farm vendors
 - Workshops or conferences
 - Rodeos
- ❑ Must occur on a regular basis, not one-time events.

Farm to Table

- ❑ Farms/Ranches with Farm to Table experiences
- ❑ Farms/Ranches with a CSA service (pickup or delivery)
- ❑ Food Aggregators/Hubs
- ❑ Non-farmer entities, please send us an email

Farmer's Market

- ❑ Is active
- ❑ Webpage preferred with up-to-date information

Steps to join:

- ❑ Email hifarmtrails@gmail.com with an introduction and a request to join
- ❑ You will receive a form to fill out for your information
- ❑ Send us at most 5 pictures of your operations representing your product, action shot of your tour/activity, a shot of your entrance, and a logo graphic. Specify which picture you would like as your profile picture

Hawaii Farm Trails reserves the right to vet and qualify operations on a case-by-case basis to ensure legitimacy but also inclusivity and consideration for the wide diversity of operations in Hawaii related to agriculture. If uncertain, send us an inquiry.*