OUR MISSION
Live Pono, Drink Ono. We’re a local brewery focused on creating small batch beers for Hawaii, constantly rotating and experimenting with new and creative ideas. We try to keep things fun and interesting.

HOW DID YOU HEAR ABOUT GOFARM HAWAIʻI?
We heard about GoFam because Kellie (Derek’s wife) works at CTAHR and we wanted to get an intensive introduction into what it takes to operate a farm.

WHAT WAS A SURPRISING CHALLENGE FOR YOU?
We always knew farming was hard work, but to actually work through it, gave us a whole new appreciation for the challenge and rewards of growing food.

HOW ARE YOU SUPPORTING LOCAL FARMS AND AGRICULTURE?
We try to incorporate local ingredients into our beers, especially for our special releases.

WHAT WAS THE MOST REWARDING PART OF FARMING?
Taking something from seed to a harvested product is the most rewarding thing about farming.

ANY LIFE LESSONS FARMING HAS TAUGHT YOU?
Persistence. Have a plan but know that somewhere along the way, you’ll have to improvise and adapt.

WHAT WAS YOUR INSPIRATION FOR FARMING?
Always had a passion and interest in growing things and also knew how important farming is for our community. Learning how to farm was the next best step.

WHERE CAN WE FIND YOU?
We have three locations in Waipio, Pearlridge Shopping Center, Honolulu, across from Puck’s Alley. We’re also in various restaurants and bars throughout Oahu.
